A Statement from Bishop Michael

Further to disturbing news of violence and unrest in towns and cities across the country, including in some areas of Birmingham, I wanted to write to express my concern and support for those of you in areas directly affected, to assure you of my ongoing prayers, and to encourage all members of Church of England Birmingham to stand against fear, suspicion and division.

I have written to the leaders of faith communities in Birmingham and the wider region, condemning the violence and assuring them of my support and prayers. As you are able, I encourage you to reach out to our friends and neighbours of other faiths who may be feeling particularly vulnerable and afraid at this time.

As followers of Jesus Christ, who taught, 'blessed are the peacemakers', we continue to work and pray for peace in our city and region and across the United Kingdom.

Yours in Christ,

Michael, Bishop of Birmingham
